

TERMET Wi-Fi RS

The Termet Wi-Fi RS internet module (Remote control of zone manager i-3 PLUS operation via Internet) is a device that allows remote control of the system operation via the Internet. The user controls the condition of the central heating system components. It is possible to view the temperature history in the form of transparent graphs and to view the history of the controller's alarms. Internet connectivity is via a Wi-Fi signal.

Login to the panel - www.emodul.pl

eModul application available for download:

- for Android devices from Google Play
- for iOS devices from the Apple Store

parameters

Value